Algoma
PUBLIC HEALTH
Santé publique Algoma

Safe Food Handler Course and Exam

Location: Four Seasons Complex (40 Garnier Road, Spanish)

Date: Tuesday, November 19th from 9am – 4pm

Algoma Public Health encourages all individuals who prepare and serve food to the public receive food handler training. Food handler courses are offered regularly throughout the year by APH.

Call 705-848-2314 to register. The cost of the course is $25.00 which includes a digital probe thermometer, food safety course manual and exam/certificate.

For more information on food handler certification or to inquire about courses and information sessions offered in your area please contact your local Algoma Public Health office and ask to speak with a public health inspector.